OLIVE HILL MAN TO SPEND 20 DAYS IN JAIL FOR FRAUD CHARGES

Minor son made fake auto insurance card on home computer

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Jan. 9, 2008) – An Olive Hill man has been sentenced to 20 days in jail after presenting a fake auto insurance card to the Carter County clerk. The case was investigated by the Insurance Fraud Investigation Division of the Kentucky Office of Insurance.

Daniel D. McGlone, 49, entered guilty pleas on two misdemeanor counts of insurance fraud and one misdemeanor count of unlawful transaction with a minor. The charges were amended from three felony counts.

According to court records, McGlone asked his son, then a minor, to create the phony card on his home computer. McGlone used the card on two occasions in October 2007 while registering his vehicles.

According to the Coalition Against Insurance Fraud, insurance fraud costs Americans at least $80 billion each year, or nearly $950 per family.

The Office of Insurance is part of the Department of Public Protection in the Environmental and Public Protection Cabinet.
